

Environmental Trainings and Certification Programs

Environmental trainings and certification programs are a way to build environmental program capacity. They provide knowledge and experience for environmental staff to protect community environmental health and safety. They can also help to meet some government regulations that recommend or require certification. Here are some of the classes we've found that can be contracted in Alaska - by either traveling to their facility or bringing an instructor out to your village.

Training	Estimated Cost	Training Location	Course Length	Vendors (not exhaustive list)	More Info
Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response (HAZWOPER)	$220/person $4,400 for 20 students	Anchorage, will travel for higher fee	40 hr	Rural Alaska Fuel Services	www.rafs.net/training.html
Freon Removal	Call for quote	Anchorage, will travel for higher fee	16 hr	Total Reclaim	www.totalreclaim.com/alaska.html 907 561 0544
Lead Renovation Repair and Painting (RRP)	$250/person	Anchorage, Fairbanks, Juneau	8 hr	Satori Group, Wisdom and Associates, Alaska Works,	www.gosatori.com , www.wisdomandassociates.com , www.alaskaworks.org
Asbestos Inspection	$400/person	Anchorage	24 hr	Satori Group, Environmental Management Inc.	www.gosatori.com , www.emi-alaska.com
Asbestos Abatement	$595/person	Anchorage	40 hr	Satori Group, Environmental Management Inc.	www.gosatori.com , www.emi-alaska.com
ASTM Environmental Site Assessments	$9,995 for 15 students	Anchorage	24 hr	ASTM International	www.astm.org/TRAIN/courses.html#ENVIRONMENTAL
Geographic Information Systems (GIS)	$1,010/person or $6,000 for 12 students	Anchorage, Juneau, will travel for higher fee	32 hr	Blue Skies Solutions	www.blueskiessolutions.net/training.html
Rural Alaska Landfill Operators (RALO)	FREE for operators.	Various Locations each year, will travel,	24 hr	Alaska Forum	www.akforum.com/training.html